

British Industrial Waterproof Distribution Box Manufacturer

AI Overview

CE-TEK, IP Enclosures, iLECSYS, and Saipwell are leading UK manufacturers and suppliers of industrial waterproof distribution boxes. CE-TEK specializes in rugged electrical junction boxes for industrial and hazardous environments, including oil and gas, petrochemical, pharmaceutical, and food processing industries. Their enclosures are available in custom sizes, ATEX-rated, fire-rated, and high-voltage safe area variants, designed to meet the latest European standards. CE-TEK emphasizes durability, compliance, and cost-effective manufacturing, with decades of experience in large-scale industrial projects. IP Enclosures offers a wide range of IP55, IP66, and IP69K-rated enclosures, suitable for outdoor, industrial, and network applications. Their products include electrical cabinets, terminal boxes, and pushbutton enclosures, with options for climate control such as fans, vents, heaters, and air conditioners. All enclosures are tested to international standards and come with a 5-year warranty, ensuring long-term reliability. iLECSYS supplies plastic, steel, and GRP enclosures, including terminal and junction boxes from leading brands like Schneider, Ensto, and Fibox. They provide wall-mounting, floor-standing, and modular options, with thousands of IP-rated enclosures in stock for fast dispatch. iLECSYS also offers customization services, including cut-outs, drilling, and machining to meet specific project requirements. Saipwell manufactures high-quality waterproof enclosures in plastic, stainless steel, sheet metal, and aluminium, compliant with NEMA and IP standards. Their products are certified by UL, CUL, TUV, EAC, SGS, UKCA, CE, and RoHS, ensuring safety and reliability. Saipwell emphasizes customizable materials and dimensions, making them suitable for specialized industrial applications. Summary For industrial waterproof distribution boxes in the...
