

Cuba Cable Tray Specifications and Prices

AI Overview

Cable trays in Cuba are available in various models such as ladder, perforated, channel, and solid-bottom types, with prices varying based on material, size, and load capacity.

Available Cable Tray Models

- Ladder-Type Cable Trays Ideal for heavy-duty applications and industrial installations. Provides excellent ventilation for cables and easy maintenance. Commonly used in oil, gas, and renewable energy sectors.
- Perforated Cable Trays Suitable for medium-duty installations. Allows airflow to prevent cable overheating. Often used in commercial buildings and IT infrastructure.
- Channel and Solid-Bottom Trays Solid-bottom trays protect cables from dust and moisture. Channel trays are versatile for smaller cable runs and retrofit projects.

Material Options

- Galvanized Steel (HDG): Durable and corrosion-resistant.
- Powder-Coated Steel: Provides additional protection and aesthetic finish.
- Fiberglass Reinforced Plastic (FRP): Lightweight, non-conductive, and corrosion-resistant.

Pricing Overview Prices vary depending on material, size, load capacity, and customization. Local suppliers in Cuba, such as Cable House, offer competitive market prices and can provide quotations upon inquiry. International suppliers like ABB and Atkore provide a wide range of cable trays with global shipping options, which may affect pricing due to import costs. Typical pricing is configurable per meter or per tray section, and bulk orders often receive discounts.

Supplier Recommendations

- Cable House (Cuba): Offers a full range of cable trays with durability and long operating life, suitable for industrial and commercial projects.
- ABB: Provides ladder, perforated, and channel trays with medium to ultra-heavy-duty options, ideal for large-scale installations.
- Atkore: Offers solid-bottom and ventilated trays with multiple sizes and materials, suitable for both local and international projects.
- Kflex Cables & Conductors: Supplies ladder, HDG, and FRP trays with various finishes and worldwide export options.
