

How much does a 12-pin connector box usually cost

AI Overview

The price for a 12-pin connector box typically ranges from $5 to $50 depending on type, brand, and supplier. Online Options and Pricing eBay offers a variety of 12-pin connectors, including Deutsch and Molex kits, with prices generally starting around $5-$20 per kit depending on quantity and type of connector. eBay listings often include fast shipping and easy returns. Mouser Electronics provides 12-position pin and socket connectors with detailed datasheets. Prices vary by manufacturer and specifications, typically ranging from $10 to $40 per unit. Mouser also offers bulk purchasing options and same-day shipping for in-stock items. DigiKey stocks 12-pin headers and male pins, with prices starting around $2-$15 per piece, depending on the connector style and material. DigiKey provides real-time inventory and datasheets for technical reference. McMaster-Carr carries 12-pole pin connectors in a wide range of styles and sizes, with prices generally from $10 to $50, and offers same-day or next-day delivery.

Considerations

- Connector Type: Ensure you select the correct type (male/female, wire-to-board, waterproof, or solid contact) for your application.
- Quantity: Buying in bulk can reduce the per-unit cost.
- Shipping: Some suppliers offer expedited shipping, which may affect the total price.
- Specifications: Check voltage, current rating, and material compatibility to match your project requirements.

For an exact quote, it is recommended to select the specific connector type and quantity on the supplier's website, as prices vary by brand, material, and shipping options.
