

Moldova Outdoor Cable Management System Manufacturer

AI Overview

Brilltech Engineers, ACE Cabling, and GG Cables & Wires are key providers of cable management and cabling solutions in Moldova. Brilltech Engineers is a prominent supplier and manufacturer of cable trays and outdoor cable management systems in Moldova. They offer durable trays made from galvanized steel, stainless steel, and fiberglass, designed to protect cables from physical damage, dust, and environmental hazards while improving airflow and cooling. Their products include perforated trays, ladder trays, and other cable organization solutions suitable for industrial, commercial, and outdoor applications. Brilltech also provides installation support, system design assistance, and project consultation to ensure compliance with safety and regulatory standards. ACE Cabling SRL, based in Chisinau, specializes in electrical cabling assembly and manufacturing of cables for various industries. While their primary focus is on cable production, they also provide customized cabling solutions that can be integrated into outdoor cable management systems. The company operates under ISO 9001:2015 certification, ensuring high-quality standards and reliability for medium to large-scale projects. ACE Cabling is capable of producing cables resistant to high temperatures and environmental stress, which is essential for outdoor installations. GG Cables & Wires EE SRL, part of the Austrian Gebauer & Griller group, manufactures a wide range of insulated wires and cables, including those suitable for outdoor and industrial applications. Their portfolio includes special shielding, high-temperature resistant, and multi-core cables, which can be used in conjunction with cable management systems for outdoor environments. The company leverages advanced European technologies and quality standards, making it a reliable partner...
