

Rwandan manufacturer of pigtail protection channels

AI Overview

SONATUBES Ltd and local steel suppliers in Kigali are key sources for pigtail protection channels and related metal profiles in Rwanda. SONATUBES Ltd, located in Kicukiro District, Kigali City, is a long-established Rwandan manufacturer specializing in PVC tubes, plastic pipes, galvanized steel, and metal profiles suitable for construction and electrical applications, including cable protection solutions. With over 40 years of experience, SONATUBES Ltd offers a wide range of steel beams, flat sheets, and metal profiles, which can be used to fabricate or support pigtail protection channels. The company also collaborates with international partners to ensure high-quality products and technical services.

Steel Material Suppliers in Kigali Several steel suppliers in Kigali provide channels, beams, and sheets that can be used for pigtail protection or similar applications. Notable suppliers include Mugarura Steel Ltd and ADAFU Hardware Ltd, which offer a variety of steel products suitable for structural and industrial uses. These suppliers can provide custom steel channels that may be adapted for cable protection purposes.

Additional Options For broader sourcing, the Rwanda Manufacturers Directory lists verified factories and suppliers across multiple industries, including construction and steel fabrication. This directory allows buyers to connect directly with manufacturers, compare capabilities, and request custom solutions for pigtail protection channels.

Recommendation If you are looking for ready-made pigtail protection channels, contacting SONATUBES Ltd is recommended due to their extensive product range and experience in metal profiles and protective accessories. For custom steel channels, Kigali-based steel suppliers like Mugarura Steel Ltd or ADAFU Hardware Ltd can provide tailored solutions. Using the Rwanda Manufacture...
