

Uganda Optical Cable Price Quote

AI Overview

Optical fiber cables in Uganda range from approximately UGX 30,000 for small retail units to several million UGX per ton for bulk imports. Retail Prices For individual or small-scale purchases, fiber optic cables are available on platforms like Jiji and Jumia, with prices starting from UGX 30,000 for basic cables suitable for home or office use. Prices vary depending on cable type, length, and brand, with higher-quality or longer cables costing more. Wholesale and Import Prices For larger-scale procurement, imported optical fiber cables in Uganda cost significantly more. According to market reports, the average import price in 2024 was around $5,489 per ton, reflecting a stable trend from previous years. Prices can fluctuate based on supplier, shipping, and cable specifications. Bulk purchases from verified suppliers in Uganda can be sourced through platforms like Volza, which provide shipment-level pricing and supplier contacts for negotiation. Factors Affecting Cost Cable type: Single-mode vs. multi-mode fiber affects price. Length and volume: Longer cables or bulk orders reduce per-meter cost. Quality and brand: Premium brands or cables with higher durability and bandwidth capacity are more expensive. Import vs. local sourcing: Imported cables include shipping and customs, increasing total cost. Summary Small retail cables: UGX 30,000 and up per unit. Bulk imports: Approximately $5,489 per ton (UGX ~20 million per ton at current exchange rates). Local suppliers: Offer competitive pricing and direct negotiation options for larger orders. Purchasers should compare retail and wholesale options depending on their project scale, and consider supplier reliability, cable specifications, and delivery logistics when budgeting for optical fiber cables in Uganda.
